

Clothing Guidelines in accordance with Rules and Regulations
2009-2010 Handbook

ACCEPTABLE

UNACCEPTABLE

These are a few examples. Tops that reveal chest area showing any cleavage are unacceptable. In addition, camisole (and unbuttoned cardigan) showing cleavage are unacceptable. Tops that need to be pulled up to conceal cleavage are unacceptable. When in doubt, bring a cover-up or clean t-shirts are available in the office.

DRESS CODE

Our dress code is designed to accommodate individual preferences while ensuring that all Angels wear appropriate, neat, clean and modest clothing. We recommend that the Angels' dress at all times be appropriate for the event in question. The appearance of an Angel must not disrupt the learning environment. "Run through" rehearsals for the Benefit Concerts and the day of the Benefit Concerts are examples of such events and learning environments where Performing Chorus Angels must pay particular care to their appearances.

The following are some guidelines that would constitute a violation of our standards:

1. Bare feet, high heels.
2. Wearing halters, tank tops, or spaghetti straps, or anything that exposes the mid-riff (Sleeveless tops OK, but bra straps must not be seen.)
3. Wearing short or tight skirts or shorts (Cargo style shorts are acceptable).
4. Hats, headgear, hair curlers (including bandanas, wraps, scarves, do-rags, caps)
5. Excessive make-up; any visible tattoos
6. Wearing pajama bottoms
7. Costumes or specially designed t shirts require staff approval.

Questions of taste or appropriateness of attire will be determined at the sole discretion of the Staff. Should the Staff decide that an Angel's clothing violates the Dress Code, the Angel will be provided a large t-shirt to wear during the rehearsal.

All choruses must wear closed in shoes with backs at ALL rehearsals. Sandals, backless shoes, and flip flops are a safety hazard when choreography is performed, which could be at any time. This rule will be strictly enforced.
