The Singing Angels Supports Two of Cleveland's Finest Youth Organizations, Big Brothers Big Sisters and Urban Community School.

Cleveland, Ohio--- The Singing Angels, Northeast Ohio's world-renowned youth chorus, will help share their gift of music with other youth in the Cleveland area.

On May 10th the Singing Angels will perform their "Best of the Best" concert at the Allen Theater, Playhouse Square, Cleveland Ohio. Through donations children involved in Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Cleveland and Urban Community School will be able to attend the concert.

A donation of just $12.50 will enable one child and an accompanying adult to attend the concert at no cost to them. This program demonstrates The Singing Angels' motto: Make Music, Make Friends, Make a Difference.

Those wishing to donate to this worthy cause can call The Singing Angels at (216) 432-5555 by April 13, 2009. Donations can be made with cash, check or credit card and are tax deductible.

The Singing Angels is a non-profit 510(c)(3) arts and youth development group. They are generously funded by Cuyahoga County residents through Cuyahoga Arts and Culture.

Big Brothers Big Sisters is the oldest, largest and most effective youth mentoring organization in the U.S.

Urban Community School is a model of education in the city of Cleveland and a leader in developing educational programs that effectively motivate inner city children.

The Singing Angels is a world-renowned youth chorus, having performed in 30 countries for Presidents, Popes, and citizens, for the past 44 years. The organization is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts and youth development group, which is generously funded by Cuyahoga County residents through Cuyahoga Arts and Culture.
